

Chennai Trade Centre, Chennai, India 14-17 May 2009

Co-located Event

Welcome to the world of WIRE, TUBE & CABLE EXPO 2009 (WTC'09), an exclusive showcase of wires, tubes, cables and allied products scheduled to be organized at India's premier venue, Chennai Trade Centre, Chennai from the 14th to 17th May 2009.

WTC'09 is being organized by Conventions & Fairs (India) Pvt Ltd (CFI), a front runner in the field of organising relevant and focused trade shows across India. Some of the key domains addressed by CFI are Construction Machinery, Machine Tools, Hand Tools, Used Machinery, Facility Management, Facades & Roofing Solutions, Signage & Digital Printing Machinery, etc.

WTC'09 will be held in conjunction with the 5th edition of INTERNATIONAL MACHINETOOLS EXPO i.e. IMEX'09, a leading machinery event.

Corporate India, International Organizations and Consulting Companies continue to remain upbeat about India's economic fundamentals. According to the projections made by the World Economic Outlook (WEO) released recently by the IMF, India is likely to register a GDP growth of 7.9 per cent in 2008-09.

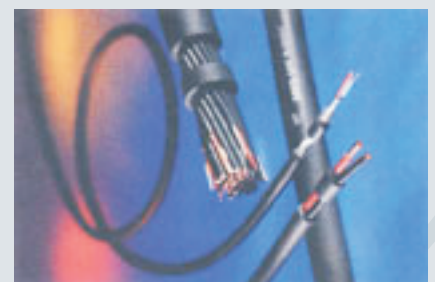

To sustain and enhance the current economic growth, India is focused on rapid economic development and has embarked on massive infrastructure projects with emphasis on the Telecom, Power Generation, Engineering & Automotive sectors. The Indian wire, tube & cable industry has been largely driven by the growth of these key industry sectors and is witnessing a massive surge in demand.

WTC'09, an endeavor designed to present the entire spectrum of developments in the Wire, Tube and Cable sector, will be the year's most important and crucial meeting place for buyers and sellers

Target Audience :

WTC'09 is an industry event and will be promoted extensively across India and the region to attract visitors from nearly every industry segment, from defense and agriculture to automotive and construction. The attendee profile is as follows:

- Corporate Executives & Managers
- Design & Manufacturing Engineers
- Operations & Plant Managers
